

Who are THEY?

I hear a lot of people blaming the erosion of freedom on "THEM." "THEY just want control. THEY want more power." That sort of thing.

Here's the problem. Who exactly are THEY? Using these words implies some grand conspiracy.

I find it much more probable that there is no conspiracy, but that there are quite a few people in positions of authority who are taking advantage of an under-educated and uninformed public.

If you doubt this statement, remember my words the next time you hear someone say, "I don't watch the news. It's too depressing."

These people have developed a synergy of purpose that goes well beyond anything anyone could actually plan.
